CRIME PURELY POLITICAL

Was One of the Best Type of Russian Official—Personal Friend of Czar.

(By Associated Press.)
MOSCOW, July 11.—Major-General Shuvaloff, prefect of police here, and formerly attached to the ministry of the interior, was assassinated this morning while receiving petitions. One of the petitioners drew a revolver and fired five times at the prefect, who fell dead. The assassin was arrested. The assassin waited in the ante-room on the prefecture till the other petitioners had been received, and then entering the audience room he advanced towards Count Shuvaloff, firing five shots at close range. The bullets passed through the body of the prefect. The assassin, who was dressed as a peasant, has not been identified. He was recently arrested as a political suspect, but escaped from the police station before his examination.

Crime Purely Political.

(By Associated Press.)
ST. PETERSBURG, July 11.—The assassination of Prefect of Police Count Shuvaloff, of Moscow, to-day is considered to be a purely political crime as the Count was not yet forty years old, and was regarded as being of the best type of the Russian official. He came from one of the most famous families in Russia.

The Count was a son of Count Peter Shuvaloff, the statesman who represented Russia at the Berlin conference, and was formerly colonel of the guard regiment known as the St. Petersburg, and was one of Emperor Nicholas's personal friends. As prefect of Moscow, when he succeeded General Sazonov, who was extremely severe, Count Shuvaloff earned the esteem of all by his firm but lenient course, making himself popular with the students.

The impression exists here that the Count was killed for preserving order.

ASKED TO RESIGN BY HIS CHURCH

A Presbyterian Elder Who Took Inconsistent Action.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ASHEVILLE, N. C., July 11.—Because he voted with the majority of the Board of Aldermen on an ordinance passed Friday evening providing for a more liberal Sunday law, Alderman B. Burnette yesterday was requested to resign his position as a deacon of the First Presbyterian Church, and his resignation was accepted at a congregational meeting with but one dissenting vote. Statements have been made by Mr. Burnette that the action of the church, the latter contending that the Burnette action in voting for a more liberal Sunday law was utterly inconsistent with his position as a member of the governing body of the church, and Mr. Burnette is said to have admitted the inconsistency. The justice of the proceedings is being widely discussed and numerous supporters of each side are to be found.

The ordinance referred to was fought stubbornly by the various churches, and the action of the Board was very severely criticized by most of the leading pastors of the city from their pulpits Sunday. A committee of pastors and laymen has been appointed to keep up the agitation for a stricter Sunday law.
